

PRESS RELEASE

TWO AT-LARGE OPEN POSITIONS ON FAYETTE COUNTY'S LIBRARY BOARD

The Fayette County Library Board is a volunteer body, comprised of seven individuals who are appointed by the Fayette County Board of Commissioners to four-year terms. Four of the seven appointments are nominated by the local municipalities. The remaining three positions are considered "at-large" and are filled directly by the Fayette County Board of Commissioners. The Fayette County Library Board is an advisory board with duties that include, but are not limited to, reporting on activities at the Fayette County Library, making recommendations, and responding to the concerns of the public in order to better the Library's operations. The Fayette County Library Board meets at least four times per year (during January, April, June and October) at 4:00 p.m. at the Fayette County Library.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners would like to notify interested Fayette County citizens that two at-large positions on the Fayette County Library Board are available and are ready to be filled.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners will be accepting applications with resumes for these positions. Applications can be obtained by contacting Floyd Jones at (770) 305-5102 or at fjones@fayettecountyga.gov. All applications must be returned to Floyd Jones at 140 Stonewall Avenue West, Suite 100, Fayetteville, Georgia by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 4, 2013.
